Shannon	Long	Brandon Murden	Jeff Casper	35	Council District 5	911 Communication Manager	High School or Equivalent	MPWFA Drill Team Director for 15 years, NCTCOG Tag Team	NA	Mesquite Quality of Life Corp./MEDA	No		Yes	As a long Time resident that has worked on municipal government for nearly 30 years .I want to become more involved in the inner workings of the city I live in now that I have the time to do so.
Stacy	Pickett	Stan Pickett	Tandy Boroughs	37	Council District 4	IT Software Development Consulting	Master's degree			Mesquite Quality of Life Corporation Board/MEDA	No		Yes	I believe I have good knowledge of how the City of Mesquite functions and what it's needs are. I believe that good economic development is vital to Mesquite's future in order to grow the tax base which will benefit all areas of Mesquite.
Jimmy	Phillips Jr			20	Council District 6	Commercial real estate	Master's degree			Mesquite Quality of Life Corp./MEDA	Yes		Yes	Raised in Mesquite and take great pride in seeing our city grow and attract new opportunities. After earning both my undergraduate and master's degrees while playing football at SMU, I went on to play professionally in the NFL before transitioning into commercial real estate. That experience taught me discipline, teamwork, and leadership — qualities I now apply to helping businesses find locations that strengthen the local economy. In real estate, I work closely with property owners, tenants, and developers, giving me firsthand insight into the factors that drive business growth and community development. I'm passionate about helping Mesquite continue to expand in ways that benefit residents and local entrepreneurs. Serving on this board would allow me to contribute my business background, local roots, and commitment to community progress toward the city's long-term economic goals.
