Youth Advisory Board	No		Yes	Through my time with Leadership Mesquite I've been able to gain a better understanding of the city's operations and needs, including the ways in which I might be able to serve and support my community. Learning about programs such as Mesquite ISD Family & Community Engagement and Safe Landing, plus touring Tosch Elementary and Vanguard High School has really focused my attention on the needs of Mesquite's kids and young adults. I've recently taken a look at the Youth Council and Youth Advisory Board, and I believe it would be a great way for me to step into a support role for teens who also have a desire to improve their own community while growing as leaders. While I unfortunately do not have an extensive history of community involvement in any official capacity, I did begin my business journey in a somewhat entrepreneurial field at a fairly young age. I have plenty of experience being the youngest leader/manager/speaker in a room and know what it's like to step into leadership while also battling the feelings that come with imposter syndrome and worrying if I really was right for the job. I would love to be able to encourage students who are also stepping into leadership and stretching their comfort zone who might also be feeling this way, in addition to being involved in a supportive role to the goals of the Youth Council.
