LaQuitha	Hasley	20	Council District 3	Family/Community Outreach Manager	Master's degree	National Association for the Education of Young Children Child Abuse Prevention Coalition Texas Home Visiting Coalition Fourth Avenue Church of Christ - Youth Director, Community Outreach Coordinator Youth for Christ - Board Secretary	Community Care Resource Council- Board Secretary - 2020-Present Collin County Social Services Association - Board President - 2021 - Term ends in December 2021 Youth for Christ - Board Secretary - 2020-Term ends December 2021	Mesquite Housing Board	Yes		Yes	My current profession allows me the opportunity to have experience working with families who receive subsidized housing. Within this position I encounter families that I must advocate for due to traumatic events or circumstances out of their control. With that, I also must let families know when they are at fault for whatever reason and make the difficult decisions of not being able to assist. I manage a team five whose main role is to locate resources for families and provide referrals. My personal life has allowed me to learn more about Section 8 as I was on it when I moved to Mesquite in 2001. I incomed out of the program in 2008. During this time I was able to continue my education and increase my income to where I could no longer qualify. I believe my personal and professional skills combined will make a good fit for the Mesquite Housing Board. I am an experienced manager, community involved, and have vast experience and knowledge of working with low income families.
