My family and I use the library, both in person and online, have attended some programs they put on, and are members of the friends of the library. My college degrees are in English, and I know the importance of reading and literature. I've also taken courses in children's and young adult literature. I taught writing and English at the college level for 15 years. I also homeschooled both of my children. I've been a part of many committees while I was teaching so I'm familiar with committee work. I'm a quick learner, technologically savvy, and am interested in hearing all sides of a topic.
