Robynn	Amaba	Felicia Williamson	Anne Hanisch	25	Council District 5	Museum Assistant Registrar	Master's degree			Historic Mesquite, Inc.	Yes	3/28/2023	Yes	My name is Robynn Amaba, a long-time Mesquite resident, and I believe I possess a unique combination of interests and professional qualifications to serve as a Historic Mesquite Board Member. I am the Assistant Registrar at the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum (DHHRM) where I am responsible for high-level cataloging of complex collections and general care of museum collections. I am also a member of DHHRM's Special Exhibits Working Group where I am responsible for the documentation and condition reporting of all loaned artifacts and their installation. My position also requires me to educate all audiences about the science of preservation. This position requires a concrete understanding of national standards of museum collections management. I have also utilized these skills at the Museum of Texas Tech University and the Texas Fashion Collection at the University of North Texas. I believe that to truly be able to share history with our community, an organization should be practicing for collection management and preventative conservation. Without these concepts, we will not be able to share the stories of our friends and family in perpetuity. What inspires me to apply is being able to serve the City. I have spent most of my life in by providing knowledge of what I am best at: museum collections management and museum registration methods. I am a proud graduate of Beasley Elementary School, Agnew Middle School and Mesquite High School (2009). I would be incredibly honored to contribute to the City that my friends, family and I make home.
