Special knowledge, education, experience, interest or other information applicable to the board/commission for which you are applying:

Whitney Fang founded and is the volunteer President at Hearts & Bones Animal Rescue, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, all-breed dog rescue organization based in Dallas, TX and New York, NY. She led the organization's growth to include over a hundred fosters and volunteers. Since inception, she has rescued hundreds of dogs from high-intake shelters in the DFW area to be placed directly into adoptive homes or to be transferred to other rescues all over the US. Beyond animal adoption to the public, Whitney has been focused on creating different, creative solutions to increase the number of positive outcomes for animals in the DFW metroplex. She has experience in rescuing dogs, as well as working across multiple animal organizations – shelters, animal control facilities, rescues, sanctuaries, boarding facilities, and vets – to create positive, sustainable change.
