Recognize Real. Texas. Service. Champions.

The City of Mesquite's Real. Texas. Service. Champions program provides an opportunity for exceptional city employees to be recognized by the City Council for their contributions to the organization and the community they serve.

Those employees being honored are:

- Kerry Graham, Human Resources Department
- Michael Wallander, Planning and Development Services Department
- John Alexander, Police Department
- Rachael Burks, Parks and Recreation Department

The stories of these employees and their service will be used in a variety of communications, including video, social media, media relations, website and more.
